CHILD 1 - Samuel SMITH-1136
Doc: Coleman p 198; GLASTENBURY FOR TWO HUNDRED YEARS, p. 192-3

No rec. found to date of his birth or place of marriage (See Lyman/Smith file for spec.)

The above named Glastonbury reference (see file for copy) is sprinkled throughout with references to Samuel Smith. Pg. 46, a list of Wethersfield residents from 1634 to 1673, lists " SMITH, Samuel, Sen'r, went to Hadley. H.P. 97. On p. 50, a document prepared for petitioning the General Court, describes a meeting 13 Feb 1690, where Samuel Smith and John Hubbard gave the town land for the meeting house. (not clear whether this was father or son named Samuel. Previous reference infers the father had moved to Hadley before this). P. 53, on 8 May 1690, Samuel Smith gives "part of an orchard, or two acres of meadow" to help pay the salary of Rev. Timothy Stevens; p. 61, 25 Dec 1707, he is listed among householders being granted 60 acres of "common undivided land"; again, same date, p. 62, he is listed among "names of persons or present inhabitants.....land is granted....", with the designation "L. [as in Lot?] 135; Y. 1727; B. III; P. 140.

On 19 Dec 1723 (pp. 64-67 same ref.) at a Glastonbury town meeting, the assembled citizens granted six thousand acres of land "not yet granted or laid out" to "residents of said Glastenbury.....their heirs and assigns forever..." The first name on the list is " [. Samuel Smith, L. 127, s. 9 A.R. 153 Remarks: fell to E. Lyman and wife Y. (blank) B. IV P. 250" (This must have been Dinah's brother Samuel!)

Again, same ref., p. 82, from Vol. IV of Glastonbury Land Records, is a record of lands laid out in 1743, "at the pages specified". First name on the list is "Heirs Samuel Smith L. 160 No. 15 A. 39 R. 32 P. 401"

Same ref., P. 99-102 " At the October session of the General Assembly, 1777, provision was made that all freemen of the State should take the oath of fidelity to the State and country....." The list which follows contains the names of 10 those who took the oath & the year taken; 2) The Ecclesiastical Society to which they belonged, G being the 1st Society, E the 2nd; 3) Names of persons who served in the Revolutionary War....." Samuel Smith is listed in ordinary script, indicating he did not serve in the war; also as G. (1st Society church) & 1777, for the year he took the oath of fidelity.

WIFE Yr of Birth

P. 126, under the heading SHIP BUILDING, refers to the first ship built in Glastenbury, in 1649, by Samuel Smith---possibly this Samuel's father or grandfather. Also, on p. 160, in a list of owners of property at "Naubuc Farms: from Hartford, South, item 12 lists Samuel Smith, owner in 1640 of land 22 1/2 Rods wide; second column lists same land in 1684 as owned by Wm. Wickham; an additional reference to this transfer of land is noted on p. 169, item 12; which reads "Samuel Smith's lot was 22 1/2 rods wide containing 135 acres. It was conferred to William Wickham in 1660, in whose possession it was at the time of the general survey in 1684. Mr. Smith removed to Hadley." (Research question: Is this our Samuel Smith's father or grandfather?)

"Turnbull's HISTORY OF NORTHAMPTON, p 76, subtitled 1659, discusses the purchase of land in or near Northampton, MA, called the "Capawonke purchase", for which the "Hartford Company paid promptly....and in April....appropriated the L30 purchase money...". Some of this, he wrote, "was to be used for Mr. Mather's [the minister] first half-year's salary..." He further states that "the agents of the Hartford Company were 'William Westwood of Hartford and Samuel Smith of Wethersfield'".

Death/Burial:According to Glastonbury land records, in 1727 Benjamin Smith (almost undoubtedly his brother) agreed to care for him "for the remainder of his life". We know Benjamin was living on his own property in Glastonbury.

He is buried in Green Cemetery, Glastonbury, which lies on the east side of Main Street about half way between Glastonbury Center and South Glastonbury. This is the land Samuel Smith & John Hubbard donated in 1692 to establish the town of Glastonbury. This was the site of the original meeting house. That burned down & was rebuilt at another site. (The present 1st Congregational Church, which is just south of Glastonbury Center, is the 5th meeting house. It was built after the 4th was destroyed in the 1938 hurricane.) Now standing on the site of the original meeting house is a red brick structure built abt 1840 which was the town hall & is now the Glastonbury Historical Society.

The very old cemetery lies to the side and back of the red brick building. Not quite halfway down Row 13 are two horizontal sandstone slabs elevated on brick supports. These are the graves of Samuel Smith & his wife Jane Tudor. Inscriptions are badly eroded, his moreso, but we deciphered it as follows:

Smith El/d born_____
died Novem 4 1732_____2
14 Job 12 190_____3
17 T S 13

The directory to graves in this cemetery (copy in file), compiled by WPA in the 1930s when inscriptions were more legible, gives Samuel's birthdate: June 10, 1640

Most of the other graves in this row are Smiths, which suggests they are all related. One is certainly Samuel & Jane's eldest daughter Mary. Two others are almost certainly Samuel's brothers Benjamin & Joseph and their wives. (See Lyman/Smith notes for details)

p. 126, under the heading SMIT SMILLING, refers to the first song built in Glastonbury, in 1659, by Daniel Smith--possibly this Samuel's father or grandfather. Also, on p. 160, is a list of owners of property at "Meadow Farms from Hartford, South, then 12 lists Daniel Smith, owner in 1660 of land 22 1/2 rods wide; second column lists same land in 1814 as owned by Ms. Wickham; an additional reference to this transfer of land is noted on p. 169, item 12: which reads "Samuel Smith's lot was 22 1/2 rods wide containing 113 acres. It was conferred to Millius Wickham in 1800, in whose possession it was at the time of the general survey in 1841. Ms. Smith removed to Hadley." [Research question: is this our Samuel Smith's father or grandfather?]

"Perkell's HISTORY OF NORTHAMPTON, p 76, subtitled 1659, discusses the purchase of land in or near Northampton, MA, called the "Capawonke purchase", for which the "Hartford Company paid promptly....and in April....appropriated the 150 purchase money...". Some of this, he wrote, "was to be used for Mr. Mather's [the minister] first half-year's salary..." He further states that "the agents of the Hartford Company were 'Willius Westwood of Hartford and Samuel Smith of Westerfield'".

Death/Burial:According to Glastonbury land records, in 1727 Benjamin Smith (almost undoubtedly his brother) agreed to care for his "for the remainder of his life". We know Benjamin was living on his own property in Glastonbury.

He is buried in Green Cemetery, Glastonbury, which lies on the east side of Main Street about half way between Glastonbury Center and South Glastonbury. This is the land Samuel Smith & John Hubbard donated in 1692 to establish the town of Glastonbury. This was the site of the original meeting house. That burned down & was rebuilt at another site. The very old cemetery lies to the side and back of the red brick building. Not quite halfway down the 11 are two horizontal sandstone slabs elevated on brick supports. These are the graves of Samuel Smith & his wife Anne Tudor. Inscriptions are badly eroded, are narrow, but so deciphered it is as follows:

Here lies ye S _____

[4 Feb 12 1?0 _____ E]
11 ? E 13

The directory to graves in this cemetery (copy in file) compiled by DFA in the 1970s when inscriptions were more legible, gives Samuel's birthdate: June 12, 1640

Most of the other graves in this row are Smith, which suggests they are all related. One is certainly Samuel & Anne's eldest daughter Mary. Two others are almost certainly Samuel's brothers Benjamin & Joseph and their wives. (See [illegible] notes for details)

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1) Could all these be the same Samuel Smith?? Or, more likely, several generations of Samuel Smiths??

CHILD 2 - Joseph SMITH-5121
Doc: GLASTENBURY FOR TWO HUNDRED YEARS, p. 192

Death/Burial: Same row in Green Cemetery as Samuel Smith, stone gives date of death, age 75 yrs. Working theory is this is younger bro of Samuel Smith.

CHILD 3 - Benjamin SMITH-5122
Doc: GLASTENBURY FOR TWO HUNDRED YEARS, p. 192

Land rec. Hebron states he gave land in 1725 to "my daughter Dinah Smith, who is unmarried." A Dinah Smith is known to have married Joseph Brewer in Glastonbury in 1727, so this Dinah Smith, known to be unmarried in 1725, is a most likely candidate for that bride.

He is recorded 3 times in a report of fence-viewers of the Town of Wethersfield. This is a list of fences beginning at the north end of the Common & moving south. Near the end & adjoining each other are Samuel Smith & Joseph Smith.

According to Glastonbury land records, in 1727 Benjamin agreed to care for Samuel "for the remainder of his life". We know that Benjamin was living on his own property in Glastonbury.

Death/Burial: His grave stone in Green Cemetery is very near to those of Samuel & Joseph (who almost certainly are his brothers). The stone, barely legible, says he died Jan 20, 1730/31, age about 78 yrs. Next to this stone is Hannah Smith, widow of Benjamin, died May 27, 1734, age 66 yrs.

land res. Before estate to pave land in 1726 to "my daughter Dinah Smith, who is unmarried." A Dinah Smith is known to have married Joseph Brewer in Glastonbury in 1727, so this Dinah Smith, known to be unmarried in 1726, is a most likely candidate for that bride.

HUSBAND - Samuel SMITH-1136

The above named Glastonbury reference (see file for copy) is sprinkled throughout with references to Samuel Smith. Pg. 46, a list of Wethersfield residents from 1634 to 1673, lists " SMITH, Samuel, Sen'r, went to Hadley. H.P. 97. On p. 50, a document prepared for petitioning the General Court, describes a meeting 13 Feb 1690, where Samuel Smith and John Hubbard gave the town land for the meeting house. (not clear whether this was father or son named Samuel. Previous reference infers the father had moved to Hadley before this). P. 53, on 8 May 1690, Samuel Smith gives "part of an orchard, or two acres of meadow" to help pay the salary of Rev. Timothy Stevens; p. 61, 25 Dec 1707, he is listed among householders being granted 60 acres of "common undivided land"; again, same date, p. 62, he is listed among "names of persons or present inhabitants.....land is granted....", with the designation "L. [as in Lot?] 135; Y. 1727; B. III; P. 140.

On 19 Dec 1723 (pp. 64-67 same ref.) at a Glastonbury town meeting, the assembled citizens granted six thousand acres of land "not yet granted or laid out" to "residents of said Glastenbury.....their heirs and assigns forever..." The first name on the list is " [. Samuel Smith, L. 127, s. 9 A.R. 153 Remarks: fell to E. Lyman and wife Y. (blank) B. IV P. 250" (This must have been Dinah's brother Samuel!)

Again, same ref., p. 82, from Vol. IV of Glastonbury Land Records, is a record of lands laid out in 1743, "at the pages specified". First name on the list is "Heirs Samuel Smith L. 160 No. 15 A. 39 R. 32 P. 401"

Same ref., P. 99-102 " At the October session of the General Assembly, 1777, provision was made that all freemen of the State should take the oath of fidelity to the State and country....." The list which follows contains the names of 10 those who took the oath & the year taken; 2) The Ecclesiastical Society to which they belonged, G being the 1st Society, E the 2nd; 3) Names of persons who served in the Revolutionary War....." Samuel Smith is listed in ordinary script, indicating he did not serve in the war; also as G. (1st Society church) & 1777, for the year he took the oath of fidelity.

P. 126, under the heading SHIP BUILDING, refers to the first ship built in Glastenbury, in 1649, by Samuel Smith---possibly this Samuel's father or grandfather. Also, on p. 160, in a list of owners of property at "Naubuc Farms: from Hartford, South, item 12 lists Samuel Smith, owner in 1640 of land 22 1/2 Rods wide; second column lists same land in 1684 as owned by Wm. Wickham; an additional reference to this transfer of land is noted on p. 169, item 12; which reads "Samuel Smith's lot was 22 1/2 rods wide containing 135 acres. It was conferred to William Wickham in 1660, in whose possession it was at the time of the general survey in 1684. Mr. Smith removed to Hadley." (Research question: Is this our Samuel Smith's father or grandfather?)

HUSBAND Samuel SMITH-1136 Yr of Birth 1640
WIFE Jane TUDOR-4664 Yr of Birth 1657

"Turnbull's HISTORY OF NORTHAMPTON, p 76, subtitled 1659, discusses the purchase of land in or near Northampton, MA, called the "Capawonke purchase", for which the "Hartford Company paid promptly....and in April....appropriated the L30 purchase money...". Some of this, he wrote, "was to be used for Mr. Mather's [the minister] first half-year's salary..." He further states that "the agents of the Hartford Company were 'William Westwood of Hartford and Samuel Smith of Wethersfield'".

Death/Burial:According to Glastonbury land records, in 1727 Benjamin Smith (almost undoubtedly his brother) agreed to care for him "for the remainder of his life". We know Benjamin was living on his own property in Glastonbury.

He is buried in Green Cemetery, Glastonbury, which lies on the east side of Main Street about half way between Glastonbury Center and South Glastonbury. This is the land Samuel Smith & John Hubbard donated in 1692 to establish the town of Glastonbury. This was the site of the original meeting house. That burned down & was rebuilt at another site. (The present 1st Congregational Church, which is just south of Glastonbury Center, is the 5th meeting house. It was built after the 4th was destroyed in the 1938 hurricane.) Now standing on the site of the original meeting house is a red brick structure built about 1840 which was the town hall & is now the Glastonbury Historical Society.

The very old cemetery lies to the side and back of the red brick building. Not quite halfway down Row 13 are two horizontal sandstone slabs elevated on brick supports. These are the graves of Samuel Smith & his wife Jane Tudor. Their Inscriptions are badly eroded, his moreso, but we deciphered it as follows:

Here lies ye b_____
Smith El/d born_____
died Novem 4 1732_____2
14 Job 12 190_____3
17 T S 13

The directory to graves in this cemetery (copy in file), compiled by WPA in the 1930s when inscriptions were more legible, gives Samuel's birthdate: June 10, 1640

Most of the other graves in this row are Smiths, which suggests they are all related. One is certainly Samuel & Jane's eldest daughter Mary. Two others are almost certainly Samuel's brothers Benjamin & Joseph and their wives. (See Lyman/Smith notes for details)

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1) Could all these be the same Samuel Smith?? Or, more likely, several generations of Samuel Smiths??

2) Need proof of Samuel's rel. to Benjamin (brother?) & both their rel. to Richard Smith (father?)

Chapin, in the Glastonbury record named above, erroneously recorded that she was m. 29 May 1727 to Joseph Brewer. (See file for xerox copy of record) Research of land records in Hebron on 7 Jun 1994 proved conclusively that another Dinah Smith, almost certainly the one known to be the dau. of Benjamin Smith [Samuel Smith's brother] was Mr. Brewer's bride. (See para. below & Lyman notes in file for complete story)

The Land Records cited above, of Colchester, CT, Town Clerk's Office (see Lyman file for complete transcript), #33, Vol 3, p 175: Deed "...I Samuel Smith of Glastonbury...for & in consideration of ye natural love & affection I have & bear unto my Son in Law Enoch Lyman of Glastonbury aforesaid, Schoolmaster, & to my daughter Dinah his wife..." gave 2 tracts of land in Colchester, a total of about 77 acres (see Lyman file for complete transcript). Land rec. Hebron states he gave land in 1725 to "my daughter Dinah Smith, who is unmarried." A Dinah Smith is known to have married Joseph Brewer in Glastonbury in 1727, so this Dinah Smith, known to be unmarried in 1725, is a most likely candidate for that bride.

He is recorded 3 times in a report of fence-viewers of the Town of Wethersfield. This is a list of fences beginning at the north end of the Common & moving south. Near the end & adjoining each other are Samuel Smith & Joseph Smith.

According to Glastonbury land records, in 1727 Benjamin agreed to care for Samuel "for the remainder of his life". We know that Benjamin was living on his own property in Glastonbury.

Death/Burial: His grave stone in Green Cemetery is very near to those of Samuel & Joseph (who almost certainly are his brothers). The stone, barely legible, says he died Jan 20, 1730/31, age about 78 yrs. Next to this stone is Hannah Smith, widow of Benjamin, died May 27, 1734, age 66 yrs.

Age is determined by a deed of land to her from her father, Colchester land Records, §12, Vol I, Part 2, p 691: Deed: "Benjamin Smith of Glastonbury.... for diverse good causes & considerations me hereunto moving & especially for a consideration ye natural love & affection I have to my well beloved daughter Dinah Smith of ye said Glastonbury singell (sic) woman..." confer a parcel of land in Colchester which I bought of Amos Bun of Colchester, it being a home lot & containe by estimation 22 acres...with the buildings, (wordy), fruit trees thereon..." Signed 24 May 1725. Witnesses: Joseph Smith, Richard Smith. Dinah Smith was married to Joseph Brewer 19 May 1737]

In the land records of Glastonbury-§12, Vol 4, pp 481-3, "Joseph Brewer, Husband & wife" received "land of heirs of Jonathan Smith, deceased, which also the land of Daniel Smith...& also land was surveyed & layed out to Joseph Brewer, 24 1/2 acres "being a grant or division made to him by the Proprietors of said Glastonbury" at their meeting 7 Mar 1741/2. She is named again in the same records, §12, Vol 6, p 47: 31 March 1760, as "ye widow Dinah Brewer & Dorothy & Ruth Brewer [her daughters] all of Glastonbury".

Marriage: Her marriage to Joseph Brewer is mistakenly attributed in the Glastonbury VR as that of her cousin also named Dinah, dau of Daniel Smith. However, the above references, as well as others in the FOR of her cousin, prove the marriage reference is wrongly attributed.

HUSBAND - Owen TUDOR-5150

Doc: Windsor V.R.; HISTORY OF ANCIENT WINDSOR, VOL II, H.R.Stiles p767

Marriage rec: Windsor V.R.:Vol 1 p 62

According to Stiles he "came from Wales to Windsor, 1649; res. on the Island (see p. 167, Vol. I): m. 13 Nov 1651, Mary (dau Joseph) Loomis, Sen., and wid. of John Skinner of Hartford;

In the HISTORY OF ANCIENT WINDSOR, Vol I, by Stiles, p. 88, he is listed among the first class (of five classes) of taxpayers, i.e., those men who had "a family, a horse and four oxen."

The same volume, on p. 93, cites that "In 1670, Owen Tudor "of Windsor was deposed from his office of Constable for swearing and drunkness." [It goes on to say "open contepmt of God's holy word or ministers was rigorously dealt with. The first offence with public reproof and bonds for good behavior, the second by a L5 fine, and standing in the pillory upon a lecture dsy, bearing on the breast a paper duly labeled in capital letters, 'AN OPEN AND OBSTINATE CONTEMNER OF GOD'S HOLY WORD.'" Other than his loss of office, the punishment for Owen is not specified.

He is mentioned a third time in the same volume, p. 167, under the heading FIRST SETTLERS AND THEIR HOME-LOTS as follows " TUDOR, Owen, 1649, bo't from John Wyatt, ho. and lands on the Island betw. Ambrose Fowler and Matthew Allyn."

The fourth mention (same volume, p. 179), is in a column showing the names and numbers of the householders of Windsor, and the manner of their "seating" in the meeting-house. It is extracted from an old Book of Rates. It specifies that "those who have been placed in the first two rows of long seats were first seated by five in a seat, and were to pay Wm. Buel 3s a person. or 6s for a man and his wife; and that made up his pay when he had finished them with doors." Owen Tudor was one of those who paid 6s and was seated in the long seat, a mark of distinction.

Finally, the same volume (p. 875) notes that "the wife of Owen Tudor [was] taken into church fellowship Aprel 28.61, and then shee had five children baptized, SAMUELL, OWEN, SARA, JANE, MARY, may 12, 61

Land Records of Windsor (Town Hall, Town Clerk's office), Vol. 1, p 120: "Owen Tudor purchased from George Alexander "his home lott containing 9 acres with all the appurtenances & Common privileges belonging to it...Jan 28, 1653."

ibid: pp 148-49: Owen Tudor purchased a series of parcels of land on varying dates, including one from Thomas Ford: "All of the swamp land that remained...by purchase of the Gillets...from the bribk of the 2nd swamp to the end of 8 score rod, from the Great River, in breadth 18 rod, as it bounds, W & S by the land of Owen Tuder (sic), N by Simon Walcott, E by Jonathan & Nathan Gillet. Assigned over by Thomas fford, June 20, 1666." Matthew Grant

HUSBAND - Robert WHITE-5738
Doc: Leanne Souzis, Desc.

Yeoman, well-to-do, lived in Shalford most of his married life. In his will he named his wife Bridget and his son Daniel as joint executors. A sizeable portion of the White family moved from the Old World to New England in the Great Migration, and stayed near to oner another in the new land.

The English shire of Essex was one of the prime centers for nonconformist preachers and many made the move to New England as congregations. In his will Robert White left a bequest to Mr. Richard Rogers, preacher at Wethersfield in Essex (adjoins Shalford). He also left money to the poor of Messing which created the suspicion that perhaps Messing was his birthplace. An Alice White and a Will White were buried there in 1591 & 1593 respectively, but it is not known that Robert White was related to either one of them. He also left money "unto Ralph Bett the younger, my kinsman and servant."
